To whom it may concern:

The Fedora Project is a Red Hat sponsored and community supported open source project. Its goal is to work with the Linux community to build a complete, general purpose operating system exclusively from free software. Public forum. Rapid progress. Open process.

Fedora Core is an operating system and platform, based on Linux, that is always free for anyone to use, modify and distribute, now and forever. It is developed by a large community of people who strive to provide and maintain the very best in free, open source software and standards. Fedora Core is part of the Fedora Project, sponsored by Red Hat, Inc.

The Fedora Core CDs and/or DVDs accompanied by this letter are distributed free of charge. For shipping and insurance purposes, we declare the value of each CD/DVD USD 0.15. However, these installation media are not imported for commercial purposes and no import duties should be imposed.

With any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.
