North Kaibab Ranger District announces changes in winter hours, closures; wood cutting season winds down for 2018

Fredonia, Ariz., Oct. 3, 2018 — For Immediate Release. Forest staff would like to remind visitors of the following changes for the upcoming winter season.

DeMotte, Jacob Lake & Group Site Campgrounds: The last night to camp is Oct. 14. These campgrounds are scheduled to close for the winter season on Oct. 15 at noon.

Big Springs & Jumpup Cabin Rentals: The Big Springs and Jump Up cabin rentals will remain open until Nov. 4, unless inclement weather forces an earlier closure. Information regarding reservations and cancellations may be found at <https://www.recreation.gov/>.

Kaibab Plateau Visitor Center: Beginning Oct. 20 through Dec. 1, the visitor center will only be open on Saturdays and Sundays from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

2018 Personal-Use Fuelwood Cutting Season: Permits are still available at the district office during regular business hours. As a reminder, all unused personal-use fuelwood cutting permits will not be valid after Nov. 30. Woodcutting permit sales will resume in May 2019 pending appropriate weather conditions.
