Forest Service to Offer Workshop on Applying for Jobs

WILLIAMS, Ariz. – The Kaibab and Coconino National Forests are offering a workshop for area residents on applying for Forest Service jobs. The workshop is sponsored by the Coconino and Kaibab National Forests' Civil Rights Action Group.

The workshop is scheduled for the following date, time and location.

- Nov. 15; 6 to 7:30 p.m.
- Northern Arizona University, Forest Science Complex Building (South Campus), Undergraduate Computer Lab, Room 109
- Please park in Lot P62 (immediately off of the I-17 off-ramp)
- Contact: Amber Dorsch, (928) 214-2455, adorsch@fs.fed.us

Participants in the workshop will receive guidance and training on applying for permanent and seasonal Forest Service jobs. Current employees will be available to help lead individuals through the application process.

The workshops are intended for anyone interested in applying for Forest Service jobs. However, to be considered for employment, applicants must be 18 years of age or older at the time they begin work.

Information will be available on local, nationwide, seasonal and permanent positions with the agency. Career fields within the Forest Service include fire, range, timber, recreation, wildlife biology, botany, geology, hydrology, law enforcement, human resources, budget administration and more.
